

Bartinney Wines

Bartinney Wines, nestled on the slopes of the Helshoogte Pass with captivating vistas overlooking Stellenbosch's Banghoek Valley, offers a truly unparalleled experience. The Skyfall trail, traversing the Banghoek Conservancy, beckons mountain bikers, hikers, and runners to partake in an unforgettable adventure, capped off with a complimentary estate wine tasting.

For a sensory delight, Martinney presents its signature Wine & Fynbos Experience, harmoniously pairing estate-grown wines with the region's indigenous fynbos flora in a charming tasting shed, where panoramic views of Simonsberg and the Banghoek Valley unfold. For those seeking an extended stay, the authentically restored cottages offer a comfortable retreat.

Reflecting its commitment to sustainability, the estate harnesses solar energy and proudly maintains a carbon-neutral status. Moreover, Martinney's dedication to conservation is evident with 15 hectares of land under protection and the planting of over 7000 indigenous fynbos plants, exemplifying their stewardship of both the environment and their guests' experiences.
